

How I Started My eBay Business

eBay Selling Guide/Secrets.

I make $3000-$4000 a month selling part-time on eBay!!

And you can too.....

This is not a work at home scam, these are the techniques and all the useful advice I can give as a successful Power Seller on eBay. Even if you are just buying on eBay this will help you learn the ropes and avoid costly overcharges from unscrupulous sellers.

This book is written 100% by me. If you have any questions before buying feel free to email me first here. What's more is that this is totally risk-free!! That's right, if you do not find it useful I will refund your money no questions asked.

I started selling as a hobby on eBay 5 years ago and now I am a PowerSeller making $2000-$4000 a month working part time from my own home. I literally started with $50 in inventory and built it up from there. You too can learn to build your own eBay business and gain your freedom. This guide has all the information you need to get started.

Don't believe me, the graphic below is a current sales report from eBay for this past Aug 04. Note the total revenue of $5575! It was a good month for me. You can plainly see my user name (trendytike) next to my feedback score. These are real earnings for me and my family.
